THE CAUSE OF COLOR IN YOUR YELLOW GREEN DIAMOND

Yellow color in diamonds is attributed to the presence of nitrogen atoms that absorb blue light in the visible spectrum. Green diamonds derive their color from the absorption of red light waves. In your diamond, subterranean radiation exposure altered its atomic structure leading to the absorption of red light by its molecules and the emergence of its distinctive color.

Today, the Cushion shape is still the most popular jewelry shape, and it is also yields the highest possible weight from rough diamonds. The pavilion on the bottom of your stone has a Starburst facet alignment to reinforce color reflection and brilliance. 34% from all Yellow Green fancy color diamonds are polished as Cushion / Radiant.

TRUE FACE-UP

The carat weight and physical size of a diamond are important factors in determining its value. However, when it comes to fancy colored diamonds, there is a tendency to prioritize other visual elements over their size, and as a result, the surface area of the face-up view is not always given high priority. Diamonds that appear slightly smaller are considered to be within the norm. However, diamonds that appear larger in relation to their weight will receive a premium.

* The data in this section pertains to the relationship between your diamond's face-up dimensions and the average face-up dimensions for relevant weight categories.

THE STRONG BLUE FLUORESCENT IN THIS DIAMOND

Fluorescence refers to the emission of visible light when a diamond is exposed to UV light. The fluorescence in this diamond is caused by the presence of trace elements within the lattice of the diamond. When a diamond is exposed to UV light, these elements absorb the energy from the UV light. They become excited, and as a result, release energy in the form of a Blue glow. A Strong Blue Fluorescence can sometimes be seen under a direct sunlight and may temporarily weaken the saturation of this 1.52 carat diamond.
