THE CAUSE OF COLOR IN YOUR BROWN ORANGE DIAMOND

The Orange and yellow hues of this 6.26 carat diamond attest to the presence of nitrogen atoms that absorb blue light and create a dark yellow hue, combined with red luminescence. Diamonds with orange and brown appearance have a distinctive atomic structure that results from immense pressure that deformed their crystal lattice and led to the absorption of a broad range of colors, including purple, blue and green.

A WORD ABOUT THE SATURATION OF YOUR DIAMOND

The grade 'Fancy' represents a level with a significant presence of color and accounts for 85% of all Brown Orange fancy Color diamonds.

There are Two available saturation levels in Orange color diamonds, Fancy being the First most saturated.

THE FUNDAMENTALS OF THIS DIAMOND'S SHAPE

The Radiant mixed-cut diamond features a starburst facet alignment on the pavilion and step-cut facets on the crown, resulting in fewer facets than a regular Radiant. Its outline is inspired by the classic Emerald cut diamond. 56% from all Brown Orange fancy color diamonds are polished as Cushion / Radiant.

TRUE FACE-UP

The carat weight and physical size of a diamond are important factors in determining its value. However, when it comes to fancy colored diamonds, there is a tendency to prioritize other visual elements over their size, and as a result, the surface area of the face-up view is not always given high priority. Diamonds that appear slightly smaller are considered to be within the norm. However, diamonds that appear larger in relation to their weight will receive a premium.
* The data in this section pertains to the relationship between your diamond's face-up dimensions and the average face-up dimensions for relevant weight categories.

The Face-up of this 6.26 carat Radiant is equivalent to that of a 7.60 - 7.76 carat which is ~22.7% larger than the average Radiant shape in this weight.
Large face-up commands a Premium
